RUMANIA

Withdraws Shattered Army From Field to Re-Group and Equip Units

RUSSIA PROTECTS FRONT

Permanent Stand of Moldavia's Defenders Probably Will Be Made On Line From Danube to Rinnik Sarat—French Capture 11,000 Men and 860 Guns In Verdun Drive

Events on the European battlefields are summarized from reports from capitals to the Associated Press as follows:

Some lessening in the intensity of the fighting in Rumania is indicated by today's German army headquarters' statement, which reports the situation on the Rumanian front unchanged.

Field Marshal von Mackensen's advance has pushed considerably beyond the Buzeu line, drawn approximately across the southern boundary of Moldavia, and official advices that the entente front is to be established between Rinnik Sarat, on the Buzeu Sarat, on the Buzeu-Jassy railway about 20 miles north of Buzeu, and the Danube marshes.

Current advices declare that the Rumanian army is no longer in action, having been withdrawn for regrouping and refitting to Jassy and Bessarabia under the protection of Russian forces which now hold the fighting lines. The Russians are expected to make their stand on the Rinnik Sarat line, where strong defenses have been prepared. The Berlin statement, reporting hostile forces falling back on Ibraila, may indicate that the easterly end of the line will be established at this important Danube river point, 25 miles south of Galatz.

In the Franco-Belgian front, Paris announces a strong counter attack by the Germans on the positions won by the French in their recent sweeping advance north and northeast of Verdun. The only success of the attacking forces, however, according to a Paris note at one point on the Champagne front, about a mile and a quarter north of Fort Douaumont, where they secured a footing.

The French took 11,387 prisoners in the Verdun fighting of the past three days, the Paris war office announces, together with 115 cannon, 700 machine guns and 44 bomb throwers.

Great Britain has received the peace note of Germany and her allies. The note was handed to the British foreign secretary today by Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador.

DOMESTIC USE GETS FIRST CALL ON GAS SUPPLY

Associated Press Telegram
Columbus, Dec. 18.—To alleviate suffering of women and children in the homes, state utilities commissions were bending every effort today to see that the supply of gas was conserved for domestic consumers.

"While we have had complaints of men being thrown out of work because there was no gas to operate the factories we think it is better that the factories should shut down for want of gas rather than deprive the homes, where the lives of children might be endangered, of the use of gas."

The commission was investigating the gas shortage in Cleveland and Cincinnati today. The investigations may be extended to the gas fields of West Virginia and Ohio, it is said, if the cold weather continues.

Utilities commissioners say they had reports from gas men that it was only a matter of a few years until the gas fields would be entirely exhausted and that they were conserving the supply in the ground to make it last as long as possible.

Storm Damages Sisal Production; Need Many Laborers

Associated Press Telegram
New York, Dec. 18.—One of the worst storms in the history of Yucatán, Mexico, cut down the production of sisal so that receipts of the product at Progreso during November were 45.7 per cent below normal, according to information received here by the sisal regulating commission and made public today.

The property damage was extensive and numbers of American vessels were among the 31 carrying ships destroyed or damaged, the statement said, and the services of 30,000 laborers are urgently needed to repair injury to crops.

Associated Press Telegram
Akron, O., Dec. 18.—Fire in the Howe school here shortly after the study session opened this morning drove 500 pupils into the cold. There was no panic, children got out of the school in one minute and thirty seconds, just as though they were doing a practice fire drill. The fire originating in an overheated furnace, did no damage.

SPECIAL ELECTION ASKED BY PETITION IN COUNCIL TONIGHT

The members of city council tonight at their regular meeting will have an opportunity to declare themselves pro and con for the proposed change of city government.

A petition will be presented bearing the names of over 1,300 citizens asking council to set a date for the holding of a special election early in the new year to vote on the issue. The names to the petition were secured by committees from the Citizens' Association, which has been active the past few weeks in promoting the interest of the commission form of government for Newark.

If the petition is accepted by council tonight, the date for the special election will probably be announced in an ordinance which will follow at the next regular meeting.

"The citizens want a change of municipal government," members of the Citizens' organization say, "and will, if given the opportunity, vote favorably on the issue."

If advocates for the present form of government are present tonight when the petition is presented a warm fight may result between the two factions.

Associated Press Telegram
Columbus, Dec. 18.—Columbus public school children are to be weighed and measured to keep their health normal. The board of education decided today to adopt the recommendation of Dr. H. H. German Shippers Will Take Contracts For "After the War"

Associated Press Telegram
New York, Dec. 18.—Action taken by German shipping interests in evident anticipation of peace was revealed here today when announcements came from the local offices of the two big German trans-Atlantic lines that instructions had been received to make freight contracts for shipments from New York to Germany after resumption of our regular service.

"We take pleasure in announcing," said a statement issued by the Hamburg-American line, "that we are now open to make freight engagements from the United States to Hamburg for shipment upon the resumption of our regular service after the conclusion of peace or such earlier time as the obstacles to such resumption may be removed."

In a notice sent out to freight agents and brokers by Oetrich & Co., general agents in this country for the North German Lloyd Steamship company, a similar announcement was made for freight contracts between this port and Bremen. It was said that such contracts would not guarantee any date and would be made subject to cancellation in the event conditions would prevent their being carried out.

SUSPECT ARRESTED

Associated Press Telegram
Huntington, W. Va., Dec. 18.—Postal authorities here believe H. Grady Webb, the last of a quartet of suspects for whom federal officers have been searching since the robbery of a B. & O. train near Central W. Va., Oct. 8, 1915, is under arrest at Kenova, W. Va., near here. The prisoner gave his name as Paul Shannon when taken into custody there Saturday. He was suspected of robbing a store at Kenova last week. One hundred thousand dollars in unsigned federal bank notes were taken while $1,000,000 in gold and valuable registered mail was overlooked.

CARRANZA

Did Not Sign Protocol, but Its Terms Are Not Finally Registered

MAY YET RATIFY MEASURE

Carranza's Feelings Hurt When He Learned That Uncle Sam Reserved the Right to Pursue Bandits Into Mexico at Any Time—Villa's Agent Visits the Commission's Hotel

Associated Press Telegram
Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—Indications at the close of the morning session of the Mexican-American commission were that Gen. Carranza was not disposed to close the door against an agreement with the American representatives who have been trying for more than three months to solve questions at issue between Mexico and the United States. When the commission convened today after a three weeks recess, Alberto J. Paul reported the results of his visit to Queretaro. The report was made verbally and was received by the Americans without comment.

The exact character of his report was not revealed but it was learned that while Carranza had not signed the protocol drafted at Atlantic City this was not necessarily to be taken as an indication that it would not be ratified later, the signature perhaps being that of Ambassador Designate Arredondo, who is qualified and authorized to sign such a document.

To the terms of the protocol providing for the withdrawal of American troops within forty days and on condition that no new raids occurred in that part of the country about the region now occupied by General Pershing's column, it is believed Carranza had offered no insuperable objection. It is known that the declaration of Secretary Lane that the American government reserved the right of unrestricted pursuit of bandits by American troops wounded deeply the sensibilities of Carranza and members of his official family, and that the message brought by Mr. Paul was little more than counter declaration of the policy of the Mexican government, unless this counter suggestion is regarded by the American members as of such definite character as to preclude further discussion. It was believed that Carranza will not delay longer the ratification of the protocol and that the conference will be formally resumed.

An incident of the preliminary session was the appearance in hotel of J. J. Hawes who represented himself as Villa's publicity agent. He made an unsuccessful effort to secure an audience with American members of the commission.

MURDERER USES FIENDISH DEVICE TO KILL VICTIM

Associated Press Telegram
Cleveland, Dec. 18.—Police today were holding three men in connection with the murder of David McCracken, night watchman at the National Malleable Casting Company plant. McCracken was found yesterday in a room of the factory with a handkerchief pushed down his throat and a piece of steel wire driven into his brain through the roof of his mouth. Police believe the murder to be the work of thieves, but Corporal Byrne declared it must have been the work of someone either insane or laboring under a desire for revenge.

Steamer Saves 12 Men From Ship Off Jersey Coast

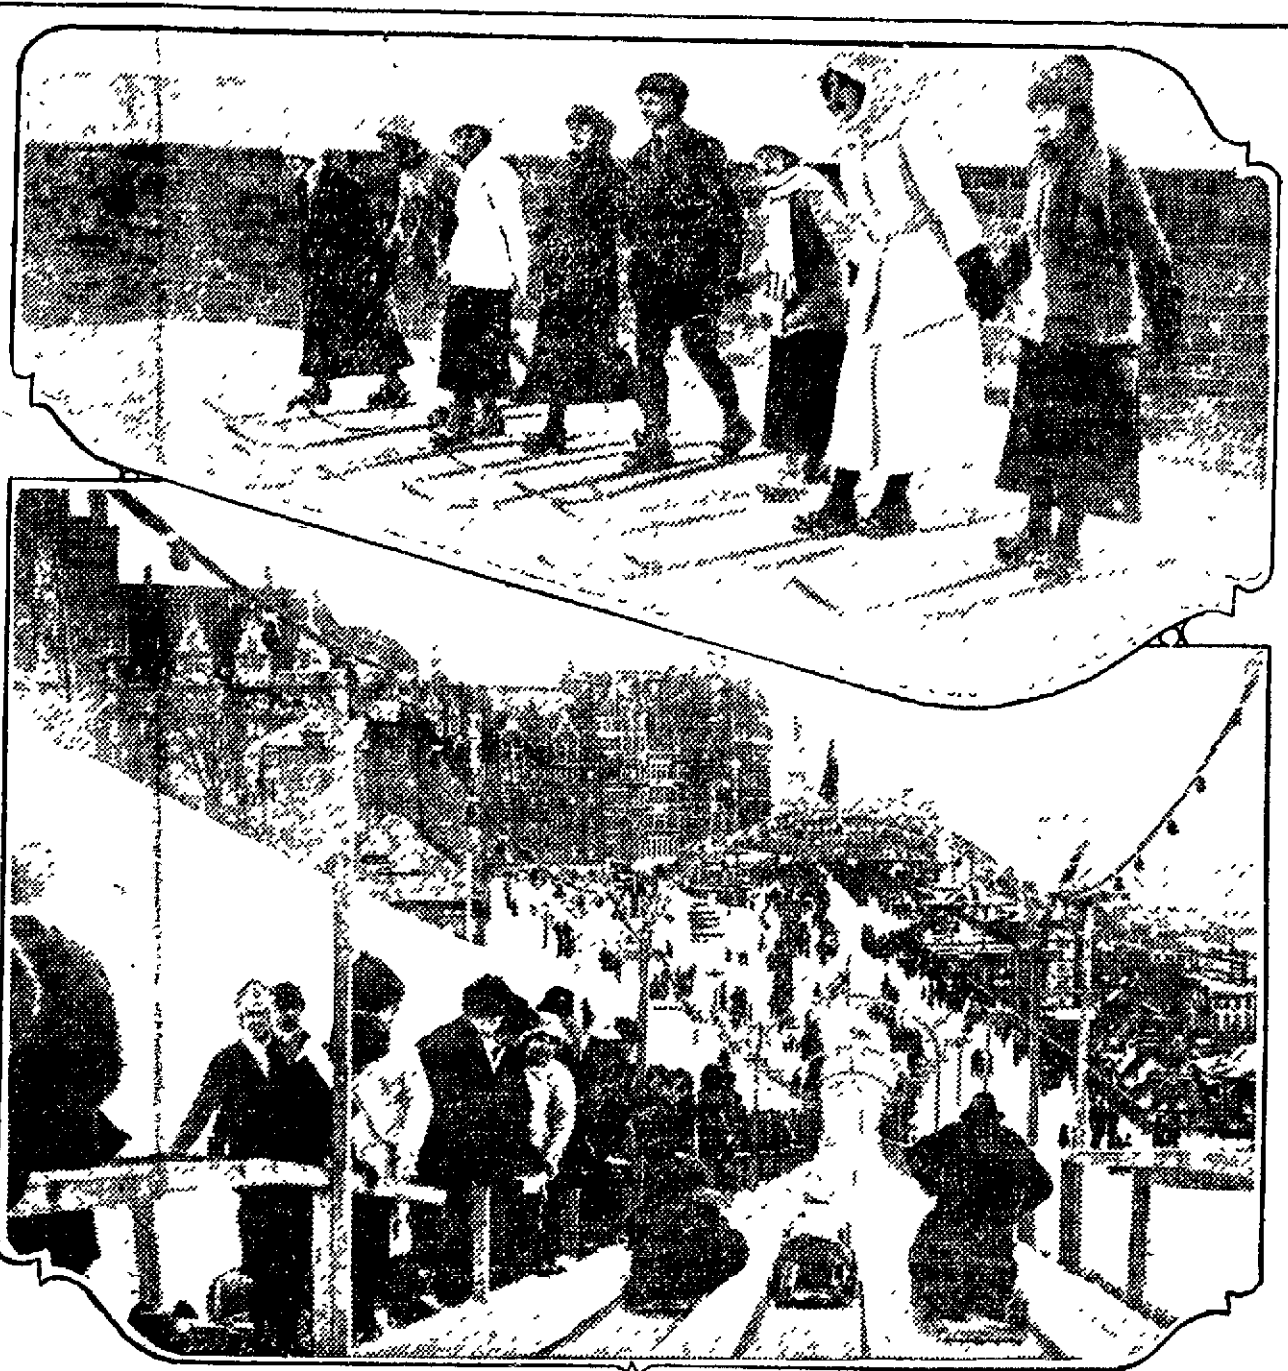

New York, Dec. 18.—The 12 men thought to have been lost in the bark Nethitis, separated from the tug Garibaldi during a storm off New Jersey coast on a voyage north from Brazil, were rescued yesterday by the Italian ship Sardegna which brought them to this port today.

Distress signals were observed by the Sardegna's lookout at 10 a. m. yesterday when the Italian vessel from Mediterranean port was some miles off Barnegat, N. J. A lifeboat was lowered and the 12 men in the vessel in trouble, which proved to be the missing Nethitis, were taken off.

The Garibaldi towing the Nethitis left Maranhão, Brazil, on October 13. Several times the line parted but the tug succeeded in picking up the bark again until with less than 50 miles of their 62,000-mile voyage still to be completed, the Nethitis was again lost Friday. This time the heavy weather made it impossible for the tug to recover her tow and the bark's crew was given up as lost. The Nethitis was being brought north to be converted into a steam vessel. The Sardegna's lookout abandoned her after removing the crew.

WOMEN TRYING TO SELL 30,000 RED CROSS SEALS

Every effort is being made by the members of the City Federation of Women's club to make a record sale of Red Cross seals during the last week preceding the Christmastide.

Seals to the amount of 30,000 have been received here for sale and have been placed on sale at the Mazy company, the J. J. Carroll company, the Meyer & Lindorf company, in the lobby of the postoffice and in the lobby of the Newark Trust company. Also stamps may be purchased at Hall's drug store, Evan's drug store, Y. M. Last year $242.41 was cleared in Newark, and each year 80 per cent of the proceeds of the sale remains in Newark and has been turned over to the Whatsoever Circle of The King's Daughters to carry on the work with regard to tuberculosis. Ten per cent is turned over to the state tuberculosis fund and 10 per cent to the national fund.

Every effort is being made this week to increase the sales and to dispose of the stamps forwarded to Newark.

BRITISH

CABINET WILL CONSIDER GERMAN'S PEACE PROPOSAL AT TOMORROW'S SESSION.

Ambassador Page Delivered Note to London Government Today—It Was Received Without Comment.

Associated Press Telegram
London, Dec. 18.—The peace note of the central powers was handed to the British government today by Walter Page, the American ambassador.

There were no formalities in connection with the presentation of the peace proposals by Mr. Page. The note was handed by Ambassador Page to Lord Robert without any comment and the recipient made no reference to the question of peace, merely thanking Mr. Page for the transmission of the message from the central powers.

The note will be considered by the British cabinet tomorrow. It being received too late today to enable the council to be called. The next step after the meeting of the cabinet will be to get into communication with the allies of Great Britain so that joint action may be taken. This is expected to take at least a week. It has been ascertained that the note contains no terms and the impression prevails in official circles that until these are disclosed a conference is impossible.

The presentation of the German note to the entente allied governments has now practically been accomplished. While the British foreign office was receiving the document from Ambassador Page shortly after noon it is believed that a similar delivery was taking place in Paris.

The Swiss minister at Rome has presented the note of the central powers to Italy without comment and through the same channel the message was presented to Belgium and Portugal, also without comment. The Netherlands minister tendered the peace proposals to Serbia in behalf of Bulgaria.

It is observed in official circles that the note was uniformly presented without comment. This is taken to indicate that Germany framed the communication so that the neutral intermediaries would act only as forwarding agents, at least at the outset.

Premier Lloyd George's speech in the house of commons Tuesday is expected to show the general attitude of the British government. Thereafter exchanges between the entente allies will determine the nature of the joint reply, but informal conferences already have prepared much of the ground.

It is understood the assertion made in the German note that the war was forced upon Germany will not be permitted to go unchallenged and that as a matter of historical record Germany's part leading to the war will be clearly shown. What is termed by British officials as Germany's methods of conducting war against a civilian population, women and children particularly in the recent Belgian deportations, also is likely to be pointed out. According to the latest advices reaching the entente allied governments the number of Belgians deported has reached 126,000.

CLEVELAND GETS FEDERAL PROBE OF HIGH PRICES

Associated Press Telegram

CONTINUE EFFORTS TO FIND RELIEF FOR NEWS PRINT SHORTAGE

Associated Press Telegram
Washington, Dec. 18.—Efforts to find relief for the news print paper shortage and prevailing high prices were continued here today by the federal trade commission in conference with committees of newspaper publishers, news print manufacturers and paper jobbers. A plan that was discussed proposes that publishers of the largest newspapers reduce their purchase next year by five per cent, so the smaller papers may receive more of the supply.

Questionnaires were sent to large publishers to ascertain if they will subscribe to this plan, relinquishing five per cent of their 1917 contracted supply to small publishers to learn their 1917 needs. At the same time the manufacturers committee was trying to learn the exact amount of paper stock on hand in the United States and the amount that will be manufactured for next year's needs.

The larger publishers are not well satisfied with the plan proposed, contending it forces them to make sacrifices to supply the small publishers when the whole problem by diverting to news print manufacture, paper making machines now working on wrapping paper manufacture.

FAILURE

Of Volunteer System for U. S. Army Admitted by Major General Scott

URGES IT BE DISCARDED

Declares Universal Military Training Not Only Would Be Democratic But Efficient and Economical—Mexican Crisis Illustrated Folly of Depending Upon Volunteers to Fill Units

Associated Press Telegram
Washington, Dec. 18.—Major General Scott, chief of staff of the army, told the senate military committee today that the army general staff recommended without apology that the volunteer system be discarded because "the time has come when this country, unless it intends to avoid war at any cost, must resort to universal liability to military training and service."

Arranging the volunteer system as extravagant, inefficient and dangerous, the chief of staff told the committee that universal training would be democratic, reliable, efficient and economical and within a few years practically render the United States immune from attack.

"It would be democratic," he said, "because the burden of national defense would fall equally upon all citizens. It would make it impossible for any man or group of men to trade upon the nation's necessities in time of war. The system would be reliable because it would produce each year the number of men necessary to be trained. It would be economical because it would be based upon recognition by the people of the duty of the individual to render personal service and in carrying out into effect the government would not have to compel in the labor market. It would be efficient because it would enable us to prepare adequately for war before war comes."

At the outset General Scott pointed out that the Mexican crisis had failed to recruit many national guard organizations even to their minimum peace strength.

The lessons of the European war, the general said, had demonstrated that a higher standard of training and discipline were required than was popularly considered necessary before, and the most of the European nations for the reason found they could not develop them in less than two years with the colors.

After having discussed reasons why the general staff believes twelve months intensive training is the minimum to prepare troops for war, General Scott stated at length why the staff recommended that no further reliance be placed on the volunteer system and urged universal liability to military training and service. Of all the nations of the world, he said, the United States and China alone relied on volunteers to defend their national existence. He recounted the failures of the volunteer system in the Revolutionary war, the War of 1812 and how it failed both the Confederacy and the Union in the Civil war.

"The system is inefficient," he said, "because under it we must wait for war to come before preparing our defense. We must wait for an emergency before beginning to raise, train or equip the vast armies which war with any first class power or coalition would render necessary. A nation that is so short sighted with respect to its man power cannot be expected to look far into the future with respect to munitions and supplies."

40 Million Acres of Wheat Sown Says U. S. Report

Associated Press Telegram
Washington, Dec. 18.—Winter wheat was sown this fall on an estimated area of 40,090,000 acres, an increase of $87,000 acres over the revised estimate of the area sown in the fall of 1915, the department of agriculture today announced.

Condition on December 1 was $5.7 per cent of a normal compared with $7.7 last year; $8.3 in 1914 and 90.2 the 10-year average.

Rye sown this fall is estimated at 4,214,000 acres an increase of 740,000 acres over the revised estimate of the area sown in the fall of 1915.

Condition of rye on Dec. 1 was $8.8 per cent of a normal, compared with $1.5 last year, 93.6 in 1914 and 92.9, the 10-year average.

Spanish Laborers Strike In Protest Against High Prices

Associated Press Telegram
Madrid, Via Paris, Dec. 18.—A 24 hour general strike called by the labor organizations as a protest against the increased price of food takes place tomorrow through out Spain. Factories, stores and many offices will be closed and no newspapers published. The authorities have posted notices appealing to the good sense of the public to maintain order and announcing that any disturbance will be vigorously dealt with.

RENEW EFFORT TO FORM GUARD COMPANY HERE

Another effort is to be made to recruit a company of national guardsmen in Newark, and the movement will likely have behind it an impetus that will carry it to a successful outcome.

Clarence Thomas A. Crossan of New Lexington and Lieutenant Colonel E. P. Walser of Somerset, commanding officers of the Seventh Ohio Regiment of Infantry were in Newark today for the purpose of looking over the ground and taking preliminary steps toward the formation of such an organization. These officers will take the matter up with the leading business and professional men of Newark as individuals.

There are now 12 companies in the Seventh regiment, but the Newark company if organized, would take the place of a company at Rio Grande, Gallia county, which is not doing the regiment any good.

Colonel Crossan also will see some of the men who heretofore have been identified with militia affairs and hopes that a spirit of co-operation is developed that will result in the recruiting of a company in the near future.

It was pointed out by the officer, that an enlistment in the national guard of Ohio is a different matter under the present federal law than it has been in times past. Officers and men now are paid by the United States government besides pay they get from the state. A captain is allowed $500 per year, and with other perquisites the position is worth from $500 to $1000 per year. A first lieutenant gets $350, second lieutenant $250.

The pay of non-commissioned officers and men also is graded. The pay of sergeants amounting to about $80 per year and corporals about $65.

A private gets $1 for each drill night besides 25 cents from the state. The regulations call for at least 48 drills per year.

The state of Ohio would build an armory at a cost of probably $35,000 as soon as the company was organized. This building would be an ornament to the city, as well as very convenient and useful for many functions, with a hard wood drill floor at least 100 feet long and 60 feet wide.

In private life both Colonel Crossan and Lieutenant Colonel Walser are attorneys-at-law. Both are deeply interested in National Guard matters in general, and the Seventh regiment in particular, and are anxious to locate a company in Newark.

POPE WILL MAKE NO PEACE EFFORT SAYS STATEMENT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Rome, Dec. 17, 8:15 p. m., Via Paris, Dec. 18, 5:15 a. m.—Pope Benedict has no intention of attempting to mediate among the belligerents at present, according to a statement issued today by the Vatican. The statement says that neither the pope nor the holy see have made or wish to make any comment regarding Germany's peace proposals and that therefore any announcements attributed to them are absolutely unfounded. It is added that the pope naturally has an ardent desire for peace but that he does not believe that any intervention at the present moment would hasten its conclusion.

Animals Used to Test Drugs.

Use is made by chemical manufacturers of various animals, such as chickens, dogs, cats and frogs, to test the efficacy of drugs.

Ergotine, for instance, is tested on chickens in an extremely simple way. Should it fail to turn a chicken's comb black, it is at once known by the experimenter that the drug is worthless.

Dogs are used to test hashish. This is manufactured from female buds of hemp, the male buds having no particular medicinal value. Hashish administered to dogs induces a peculiar pathological condition if the drug is correctly prepared, which is seen in no other animal save man himself.

Digitalis, the heart stimulant, is best tested on frogs. Injecting a drop of the drug into the stomach of the frog, the chemist by means of the kymograph or heart recording machine studies the changes of the frog's heart action, thus obtaining accurate knowledge as to the effect of that particular kind of digitalis.—Exchange.

When Thermometers Differ.

Why does a weather bureau thermometer show lower temperature in hot weather than the thermometer at the corner drug store? asks the Popular Science Monthly. When discrepancies exist they are due chiefly to the fact that the official thermometer is installed in a wooden case, where it is open to the air, but screened from both direct sunshine and the heat reflected from surrounding buildings, etc. Only under such conditions does a thermometer measure accurately the temperature of the air. A thermometer in the sunshine becomes much hotter than the air around it, and its reading simply tells us how hot the instrument is, not how hot the air is. In large cities the weather bureau thermometer is often installed on the roof of a high building, where the temperatures differ somewhat from those prevailing at the street level. The object sought in this arrangement is to obtain a record of the natural temperature of the locality in general rather than the artificial temperatures of the city.

Right For the First Time.

One winter a masquerade party was given at New York, at which practically all the great musical lights in the country were present. Very few knew who any of the others were, but in some way Josef Hofmann, the famous pianist, knew one of the disguised men to be a leading musical critic in the city. During the evening the latter, grasping the hand of the pianist, said:

"I don't know who you are, but this hand strikes me very much as the hand of a pianist."

"Quite right," answered Hofmann, "and it is the first time I have ever known you to be right in a musical criticism."

And as no one unmasked during the evening the critic is still wondering who said it.

Ruffed Grouse.

Civilization is abhorrent to the ruffed grouse, king of American game birds. It seeks the depths of the forests where the wild grapes and wintergreen berries grow thickest; where clumps of laurel offer security from prowling wildcats or foxes; where mighty trees supply roosting places. There is no prouder bird in appearance than the ruffed grouse, none so majestic in flight. The hunter who can find him and after finding can make 50 per cent of his may be classed as an expert. When flushed this grouse springs into the air with a roaring noise; there is a flash of brown hurling itself through the forest, and in an instant the bird is lost sight of.—Boston Journal.

Caste System Among Ragmen.

Japanese ragmen have a caste system going from the lowest class, composed of men with no capital, who go about picking up bits of paper and rags with pointed sticks, to the highest class, in which there are some men who are quite well off. There is an intermediate class composed of men who can pay for what they get, the products they deal in depending largely on the amount of money they may have. Among the higher class of ragmen there are divisions of trade, some dealing in woolen rags, some in cotton and others in different kinds of paper.—Japan Society Bulletin.

MAYER FINDS PRICES HERE ARE HIGHER THAN IN NEBRASKA

"I'm going back to dear old Nebraska," sang Edward Mayer of Ashland, Neb., today, when he arrived in Newark with his wife, after an absence of eight years to visit his father, George Mayer, 417 North Eleventh street.

Mr. Mayer's outburst was the result of a marketing trip he made shortly after he arrived.

"Food prices in Newark certainly are high," he said, "compared to those of Ashland."

"Eggs in Ashland Monday were thought high at 32 cents a dozen, while country butter was selling for 33 cents a pound. Potatoes were retailing at 1.75 a bushel."

Mr. Mayer, fore going to Ashland eight years ago, was employed as trouble man for the local Central Union Telephone company. Since going west he had been supervisor of telegraph and telephone for the Burlington railroad company.

Monday morning in Ashland the thermometer registered seven below zero, according to Mr. Mayer; yet the cold was not felt like when he arrived in Newark with the mercury hovering around 12 above. He explained this was due to the atmosphere being drier in Nebraska than in Ohio.

Before returning home Mr. Mayer will make a trip to Washington, D. C. to look after the interest of a fire alarm patent, of which he is the inventor and which is soon to be put on the market. The new invention is operated in connection with a telephone exchange and is said to be a "mighty good proposition. In addition to this, Mr. Mayer has a number of other patents pending, which will be used in connection with telephone services.

New Zealand's Glaciers.

The great size of the glaciers around Mount Cook, in New Zealand, has been often remarked. The Tasman is eighteen miles long, the Murchison ten miles, the Godley eight miles, the Mueller eight miles and the Hooker seven miles. Most of these glaciers have moraines of exceeding roughness, but the approaches to them are not steep, as is usually the case with European glaciers. The southern Alpine snow line is only a little over 7,000 feet. Glacially polished rocks are rare, and in many ways the mountains are singularly different from those of central Europe.

His Practice.

"The footpad fired at you four times from a distance of twenty feet and yet missed you?"

"Oh, no," replied the hero of the adventure. "I missed him. I have dodged so many automobiles and motorcycles that I had no difficulty in dodging the bullets."—Kansas City Star.

Redd—"You say he ran into debt when he got his car? Greene—Yes; that was the first thing he ran into.—Yonkers Statesman.

The West Point Uniform.

The color of the West Point uniform records a bit of national sentiment. It is a little sentimental note on the forgotten battle of Chippewa, when there was not enough blue cloth in the country to cover our small army, and the British commander, seeing a gray line of regulars advance, mistook them to his undoing, for "nothing but a body of Buffalo militia."—Helen Nicolay in Century Magazine.

Coming Closer.

"Do you think you will ever own a car?"

"Why not? The controlling circumstances are bound to meet."

"What do you mean?"

"Autos keep coming down, and I keep saving up."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Fame, my boy, is the result of doing your work a little better than anyone else can do it. Try to deserve it."—Detroit Free Press.

Domestic Sympathy Strike.

Knicker—Has your wife gone on strike? Bocker—Yes; she struck as a cook out of sympathy with herself as a dressmaker.—New York Sun.

To persist in a wrong, to refuse to undo it, is always to become involved in other wrongs.—Henry George.

No Joke, Either.

"Isn't it awful the way prices have gone up?"

"It surely is. Just think, my husband will have to work three weeks to get money enough to pay for this little gown I have on."—Detroit Free Press.

Diplomacy in the Home.

Every now and then wife urges husband to buy some new clothes for himself, but if he is a pretty good talker he can get out of it without making her mad.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

There is no breakable bric-a-brac about, only a few brass bowls and trays for trinkets. The built-in bookcase, where favorite books and magazines abound, have no glass doors and no silk curtains that may be broken or torn from the rings so the boy is not haunted by the fear of breaking things, and even a mild game of baseball harms nothing.

The CHRISTMAS MONEY CLUB

---OF THE---

HOME BUILDING ASSOCIATION CO.

OPENED TODAY

CLOSES SATURDAY, JANUARY 6th

Hundreds Joined TODAY!

Many were among the 6,600 members of our 1916 Christmas Money Club to whom we recently mailed checks for over $180,000.00.

Many new faces appeared, however, for everyone who was in this year's Club has spread the news to his or her friends until we believe that further advertising would be almost needless.

Still, we want to bring the Christmas Money Club plan into every home in Newark and this vicinity.

Details of weekly payments in each class are given at the right.

We ask you to join THIS WEEK.

There is always a rush the last week, and we may be forced to limit the membership in the 1917 Christmas Money Club.

So come in at once! We can serve you better now.

At the end of the Club period the total amount paid increased by interest will be paid to members who make all their payments during the week they are due or in advance.

What's in a Name?

If the heart has atrophied, having attained that wisdom which is mainly disillusion, a name is nothing much. But if the heart keeps young a name's the world and all. What man of parts, choosing a book at random, would hesitate between "Paolo and Francesca" and "Peter Simple" or spend his money for "Martin Chuzzlewit" if his eye fell on "The Last of the Mohicans" or "The Master of Ballantrae" in the next row of the stall? And, of all right spirited young sprouts of sensibility and good romantic proclivities, who would not rather love a girl named Eleanor than one named Mary Jane? Who would not rather follow a commander named Nelson than one named Henry Simpkins? Who would not rather go to sea in a ship named the Talavera than in one named the Codfish? Who would not rather sight the land of the strait of Sudra than at Brackett bay?—New Republic.

Ship Signals at Sea.

There are various ways in which ships signal at sea. The most general method in daylight is by code flags and pennants, these being arranged according to an international system of signals. But sometimes, owing to weather conditions or distance, it is not easy to distinguish the colors, patterns or shapes of the flags, and then other methods have to be adopted. Chief among these is a system of exhibiting cones, balls and drums, various orders and positions representing different things according to the recognized international code. One combination means, Show your ensign; another, Is war declared? Another, War is declared. Another, Beware of torpedoes, or channel is mined. Another, Enemy is in sight. Another, Keep a lookout; enemy's ships reported about disguised as merchantmen, and so on.—Exchange.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Frank Frazer was the charming hostess to the members of the Coterie club at her home in Granville street, when the following program was given:

—Stevenson.

The members and one guest, Mrs. P. A. Norman were entertained at dinner at the First Presbyterian church, following the program.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McCracken, life long residents of Hopewell township, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday, December 13th. They have always lived at the McCracken homestead four miles south of Black Hand. At 12 o'clock dinner was served to those of the immediate family and a few guests. Mr. and Mrs. McCracken received many beautiful gifts and expressions of best wishes in memory of their anniversary. At a late hour all returned to their homes, wishing them many more happy days. Those present from a distance were Mr. Abram Brown of Conway, Kansas, Miss Elizabeth Howell of Syracuse, Kansas, and Mrs. Mary Ludhope of Colorado.

A charming Christmas party was enjoyed by the members of the Photographic club at the home of Mrs. P. H. Cosner in West Main street on Saturday afternoon. Festoons of crimson were caught with wreaths of holly, and the Christmas colors, red and green predominated in all the appointments of the luncheon of three courses. The Christmas box arranged with holly and red ribbon, contained gifts for the guests and members. During the afternoon hours, the following program was given:

Philanthropy.
Some Exponents of the Christmas Spirit.
J. A. Burns—Mrs. May Swartz.
Russell H. Conwell—Mrs. Virginia Burke.

Christmas Pantomime—Miss Hazel Armstrong.
Music—Mrs. Gertrude Richards.
Three Wise Men—Mrs. T. J. Coulter.

The Party of Paul Lawrence Dunbar—Mrs. William Shrontz.
The guests of the club were: Mrs. Clifford Frye, Mrs. William Shrontz, Mrs. Frank Hull, Mrs. Theodore Kemp, Mrs. A. J. Ellerman, Miss Breunstuhl, Miss Alice Simpson, Miss Frances Simpson and Mrs. William Cosner.

Thelma Tomlinson delightfully entertained the members of the Frolics Zehn club at her home Friday evening. After the business meeting a contest was enjoyed by all, Marjory being the lucky contestant. The next meeting will be in two weeks, with Marian Roeder.
The Sesame Club was entertained by Mrs. J. L. Frenier at her home in St. Clair street on Wednesday afternoon. A short business meeting was held, and a contest enjoyed. Mrs. Wendelken was awarded the trophy. A faint collation was served to twelve members and one guest, Mrs. Carl Graf.
The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Walter Trichey in Cedar Crest on Friday, December 29, when the Christmas pie will be cut.

Wild Cotton.
A common plant which grows in a score of shapes and sizes is the milkweed. It is called milkweed from the milky juice contained in the stems. Some bear white blossoms, others purple, while the stems and leaves have a variety of sizes and shapes. After the blossoms disappear the plants bear seed pods, which are the "hangars" for the air scouts.

Each seed has a set of wings of airy lint. As the pods ripen and break open the wind lifts the light seeds and scatters them broadcast.

Nature came very near making a substitute for cotton when she produced milkweed. In fact, the plant is known sometimes as "wild cotton." But the lint in the seed pods has not the twist of cotton fiber and therefore cannot be used for spinning. Nevertheless it provides a satisfactory down for stuffing pillows, a use to which frequently it is applied.—Boston Journal.

Air Men and Altitude.
"A man can go up 15,000 feet by rail or on foot without more than a shortness of breath and occasional nose-bleed," says an experienced British aviator, "but not every man and not even every seasoned flier can stand jumping up to 12,000 feet in the half hour that some of the machines can negotiate that height in. The difficulty's almost entirely physical, and it all depends upon how a man is made whether or not his flesh and blood will accommodate themselves to the suddenly reduced pressure of the atmosphere. There's no growing used to it. If it gets you once it's pretty sure to do it again. At the best you may only have a bad headache and a sort of 'boiled owl' feeling for a week. At the worst you faint, lose control of your machine and are listed among the casualties of 'cause unknown.'"

And the flier added that the sooner a man learned his altitude limit the better. "There's plenty of useful work below 12,000 feet," he said, "for the man who begins to 'blow up' mentally or physically, above that height."—Lewis R. Freeman in Atlantic.

When a Locomotive Puffs.

Puff, puff, puff!

The train was just leaving the station, and the puffs of the locomotive, at first slow, grew faster and faster and finally seemed to cease in one great roar.

"It is the emission of the waste steam through the chimney that causes that puffing sound," said an engineer. "As the train gathers speed the puffs increase in rapidity, and when ten a second are emitted the ear can't distinguish them separately any longer—it hears them as a continuous roar."

"The majority of people on this account think a locomotive only puffs at starting. Really, she puffs all the time, only the puffs are too rapid to be recognizable. A train going a mile a minute gives twenty puffs a second, or 1,200 a minute."—Exchange.

B. church here, at the family home in Hopewell, Friday. The family moved to Hopewell a short time ago after Mrs. Smith's condition became serious.

J. L. Schick.

J. L. Schick, one of this city's best known citizens, died Sunday morning at 1:30 o'clock at his home, 57 Spring street, after a two months illness with cancer of the bowels. Mr. Schick was aged 61 years and was born at Cambridge, O., coming here from that place in 1870, and engaging in mason work, having built the foundation for the Sailors and Soldiers Memorial hall. For years he was employed as mason and cement foreman of a bridge gang on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and was one of their valued and trusted employees. He has been a reader of the Advocate ever since coming to Newark, 46 years ago. In memory of our mother, Margaret Davidson.
Dear Mother a year has passed
Since we said goodbye.
Oh! how we miss thee,
Our hearts and homes are sad
And lonely without you.
Yet day by day through our
Blinding tears we see
Smiling face we see.
—Alice Redman,
Laura Kunkler.

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Eva McLain who died Dec. 18, 1914. We miss thee from our home, dear mother,
We miss thee from thy place.
A shadow o'er our life is cast.
We miss the sunshine of thy face,
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care.
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.
—The Family.

The Cleaners.

Gleaning is wrongly believed to rest on a common law right in England, and a legal obiter dictum exists that a man who enters a field for this purpose cannot be prosecuted for trespass. But a majority of judges in the old court of common pleas decided that to grant a general right to glean would be contrary to public policy, because "it would demoralize the poor" and "open a wide door to fraud." Yet a local custom of gleaning has been recognized repeatedly by acts of parliament, and in some places the "gleaning bell" still rings from the tower of the parish church twice a day during harvest to let the villagers know when they may begin to glean and when they must stop. Ruth's romantic industry seems unknown in Ireland and has never existed in Scotland.—London Chronicle.

Superfluity of Flesh.

The charming station of B. in Savoy, gives assurance that its waters are particularly efficacious against obesity. It is not rare to meet in the streets of this little place imposing groups of stout dames who have decided to follow the rather vigorous treatment there employed to transform themselves into sylphs. To recover the slenderness of youth they resign themselves to maceration in the sulphurous water at 36 degrees C. The tub in which this bath is taken is intended at most for two persons. Recently three bathers were introduced into this narrow receptacle. A fourth appeared, who insisted upon entering the tub, whereupon one of the maids cried out, "Oh, madame, don't you see that there is already more meat than soup?"—Cri de Paris.

Animal Cemeteries.

The largest and best appointed animal cemetery in the world is undoubtedly that which still remains attached to the ruined Summer palace in Peking. Here repose in coffins of polished orris wood elaborately carved more than 1,000 dogs, the defunct pets of former emperors of China.

The "tombstones" are of marble, but a certain number are of agate, lapis lazuli and ebony inlaid with silver. At the sacking of the palace by the allied European troops in 1900 considerable loot was obtained from this unique burial place.

In London is a "dogs' cemetery" situated behind the keeper's cottage at Victoria gate, Hyde park. Here are interred some 200 dogs and about a dozen cats. Each grave is between two or three feet in depth, and some contain as many as three dogs, each in its separate little coffin. The pets of all classes of society are represented.—London Standard.

Chrysanthemums Shaded.

Many of the fine chrysanthemums which are produced in this country are grown neither under glass nor in the open, but under cheesecloth. In California a large number of Japanese are engaged in this work, a branch of floriculture in which they excel. The equipment of one Japanese chrysanthemum grower at Alameda, Cal., is described in Popular Mechanics. It includes an area 100 feet square covered with cheesecloth supported eight feet above the ground by a light wooden framework. Near the edges the roof of this cloth house slants; elsewhere it is level. In it delicate plants are set out about ten inches apart, protected from the wind, sun, dust, insects, etc. As they grow they are carefully pruned so that each plant has but one stem on which there is a single flower. The cheesecloth lasts only a few months and has to be renewed every season.

Very Slow.

"Do you drink coffee?" asked the doctor of an aged patient.

"Yes," was the reply.

"Coffee," continued the M. D., "is a slow poison."

"Yes, very slow," replied the old man. "I have taken it daily for nearly eighty years."—London Answers.

HATTER'S PLUSH USED IN POIRET MODEL

The Brusloff gown.

Paul Poiret, the famous French designer, has used hatter's plush to good advantage in fashioning the Brusloff gown. The skirt of hatter's plush is really one of the most extreme that has come from this fashion creator this season. It exploits the irregular skirt, which, however graceful its lines may be, is not a thing of beauty.

The flounce of the skirt is exceedingly full and is fastened onto the irregularly draped yoke by means of double stitched cartridge plaits, the line of the hem approximating in its irregularity that of the yoke. The coat of green broadcloth is cut with a fitted skirt and has a fancy fastening at the waist line.

The hat of brown velvet has a touch of green in the ribbon banding which encircles the straight crown and also in the tiny row of velvet balls suspended from the rim of the brim. A fancy ruff of the ribbon finishes the hat at the side front.

It's false economy to use cheap-looking stationery. You can't go wrong if the Advocate prints it

12 OIL WELLS IN NASHPORT FIELD LOCATE NEW ONES

Activity in the Nashport oil fields is now at fever heat and much new work is in progress. The Columbus company have 14 wells pumping and drilling on their lease, a number of them averaging 30 barrels per day.

Kinsey Brothers have four strings of tools working on the O'Bannon lease in the same territory for the Everett Company. They are drilling Nos. 5, 6 and 7 and will start spudding in No. 8 in a few days. These wells are all splendid producers, nearly all of them having come in at better than a hundred barrels and all averaging about 30 barrels per day.

Haiti's Grotesque Army.

When the late President Laconte of Haiti set about to reduce the size of his army a few years ago many of the generals whom he mustered out of the service were put to breaking rock on the street. At one time there were more officers than men in the Haitian army, according to apparently authentic statements. In former times the pay of a Haitian soldier was small at best, nothing at worst and at all times insufficient to keep the warrior fed decently. The days for loading coffee on departing ships were great days in Haiti. They were days when the army got a square meal, thanks to the stevedore wages which the men were able to earn, says the National Geographic Magazine. The army officers of Haiti were as fond of gold lace as a mountain girl of bright colors. Small wonder, then, that the regalia of a field marshal was everywhere in evidence. Feeding the Haitian armies in the days before the American "big brother" movement was not a difficult job. Garrison rations consisted of a sugar cane stalk two or three feet long and whatever else the soldier could beg, borrow or steal.

Rocking Chairs.
Rocking chairs are an American institution, although they are to be found today pretty much all over the civilized world. In England they are invariably referred to as "American rockers," and indeed this application is not confined to that country. Here and there on the continent you will hear of them in the same category. Authorities are widely at variance as to the time and place of the very first rocker. But that the first one was turned out more than 200 years ago there is little room for doubt. It is fair to assume that it was the invention of a New Englander who loved his ease. He probably invented it to offset the discomforts of the severely straight backed chairs of our early colonial days.—Exchange.

Romanian Peasant Diversions.
"Many hands make light work" is a proverb of the Romanian peasant often put into practice. Almost every night there is a neighborhood gathering like the old fashioned apple cutting or apple butter boiling in early American rural history. The houses have their turns at these parties, and there is always a keffle of commel moush and baked pumpkin and potatoes and popcorn ready for the occasion. All hands join in the evening program of combing, oarding and spinning the household supply of wool or flax, while the neighborhood gossip passes current among the elders and occasional words of love or childish jest among the more youthful members of the party.—National Geographic Magazine.

Donkeys Are Haiti's Food Trains.
Nearly all the produce for the feeding of the population of Port au Prince, Haiti, a city of some 60,000 people, is brought in on the backs of donkeys. The public squares are converted into open air market places, and here the buying and selling goes on from early morning until 4 or 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when the caravans begin their toilsome journey homeward. Situated in a region famous for its fine fish, among them the delectable and plentiful "red snapper," the Haitians eat quantities of salt cod imported from Massachusetts waters. And the quality of this imported staple is such as would not find favor in American markets.—National Geographic Magazine.

First "Outsiders."
Until the nomination of Franklin Pierce for the presidency of the United States the word "outsider" was unknown. The committee on credentials came in to make its report and could not get into the hall because of the crowd of people who were not members of the convention. The chairman of the convention asked if the chairman of the committee was ready to report, and the chairman answered, "Yes, Mr. Chairman, but the committee is unable to get inside on account of the crowd and the pressure of the outsiders." The newspaper reporters took up the word and used it.

Pilloried.
"You druggists have to stand for a good many jokes."
"Yes."
"A drug store is sometimes facetiously alluded to as a pillory."
"About right, too," said the druggist. "Keeps you penned up most of the time."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Reassuring.
Irate Gentleman (to his gardener): "What do you mean, sir, by telling people in the village that I'm a stingy master? Gardener—No fear o' me a-doin' the likes o' that, gar'nor. I allus keeps my thoughts to myself."—London Punch.

Transmutation.
"Do you think you can turn the baser metals into gold?"
"Undoubtedly—if you can guess which way the steel market is going."—Washington Star.

Turn About.
Stella—When you are engaged you tell him that he must economize. Bella—And after you are married he tells you that you must.—Puck.

Finished.
"Jack got through college in three years."
"What of it? I got through in one."—Harvard Lampoon.

Dayton Factory Has Branch Here to Make Cigars

A new cigar factory that soon will employ 100 experienced cigar makers has begun operations at 34 1-2 South Fourth street. It will occupy the entire second floor, 200 by 50 feet, of the brick building just north of the old canal on the east side of the street.

The new factory is a branch of the Joseph Schaefer Cigar company, of Dayton, established by that man many years ago. Joseph Schaefer is dead and the business is conducted by his two sons, Eugene and Charles. The Newark branch now is working 24 cigar makers and began business November 26, a little more than three weeks ago. As fast as new cigar makers come in they will be put to work until full capacity is reached. All the stock is sent to Newark from Dayton ready to make up into cigars, and enough is on hand and available to last a long time.

The product of the new factory will be only 5-cent cigars, two brands being manufactured here, the "Jane Cable" and "Colonial Girl." Edward Drumm for a long while with Swisher Brothers, is the manager, and is very confident that the new factory will be a valuable addition to the industries of Newark.

Postoffice Rules On Post Cards

To the dealers in and users of picture postal cards:
Picture postal cards give the post-office department a great amount of annoyance. All picture postal cards covered in whole or in part with mica or tinsel are unmailable, unless enclosed in envelope, either transparent or otherwise, and must be sealed and two cent stamp placed on outside of envelope, not on the card.

Dealers should call the attention of their customers to this fact, for the reason that if mailed otherwise they stay in the office and are not dispatched.

If the writer signs them in a way that we can locate the sender, they will be returned to them, but if signed, Mamma, Johnnie, Mary, Sister, or similar they are treated as waste and do not reach anyone.

We did not make these regulations. They were made by the post-office department, and we have no alternative but to enforce them. We are holding quite a number of cards at present.

If you must use these mica or tinsel cards, see that they are enclosed and the proper postage placed thereon. F. T. MERCER, Postmaster.

ELKS WILL DANCE NEW YEARS; START AFTER MIDNIGHT

The Elks of this city will enjoy a New Year's Eve dance, or perhaps it might be termed an early morning New Year's dance and breakfast. On account of New Year's Eve falling on Sunday the dance will not be called until 12:01 o'clock, or one minute after midnight. The hall will be appropriately decorated and everybody will enter into the spirit of the occasion and welcome the New Year.

A light lunch will be served immediately after midnight in the balcony of the Assembly hall and at 5:00 a. m. a fine breakfast will be served after which the dance will break up. It is expected that at least 150 couples will participate in the affair, which will be under the supervision of the entertainment committee.

MAKE A COMPARISON

A comparison of several of the 6c size packages, different brands of condensed milk, with a pint bottle of our own milk, recently gave the following results:

A pint bottle of our milk contained 17 oz. of milk and costs 5c.

A 6c can of condensed milk contained 6 oz. of fluid which was to be diluted by an equal amount of water after which the purchaser has ready for use the equal of 12 oz. of ordinary milk.

It is apparent that these cans of condensed milk contained approximately 5 oz. less of milk, or its equivalent, at a 6c price than is contained in a pint bottle of our milk costing 5c.

Son of Wealthy
Man Detained As
Father is Stricken

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 15.—Carlos Alvarez, the 14 year old son of Manuel Valdez Alvarez, a leading drygoods merchant with a string of stores throughout Spain, was taken to Ellis Island today from the Spanish liner Buenos Ayres in port from Cadiz. The father was carried ashore on a stretcher helpless from apoplexy and taken to a hospital. The United States immigration law permits no alien under 16 years of age to land unless accompanied by the parents or legal guardian, and the immigration inspector stated that under the circumstances he had no other course to pursue than to send the boy to Ellis Island.

Representatives of various New York drygoods concerns tendered any bond that might be required by the government but their offer was of no avail. According to the representatives of local firms, Alvarez has a credit of $500,000 in New York and owns fifty drygoods stores in Barcelona, Madrid, Cadiz, Malaga, Seville and other places in Spain. He was on his annual visit to his store in Havana when stricken.

Novel Methods of Warfare.

In ancient history there are two well authenticated instances of wild animals being used by attacking armies. The first is related by Appian when describing the siege of Themisseyra, in Pontus, by Lucullus in his war against Mithridates. Turrets were brought up, mounds were built, and huge mines were made by the Romans. The people of Themisseyra dug open these mines from above and through these holes cast down upon the workmen bears and other wild animals, together with swarms of bees. The second instance occurred in England when the Danes and Norwegians were attacking Chester, held by the Saxons and some Gallic auxiliaries. After adopting stoning and boiling water defenses in vain against the besiegers the Saxons threw down all the beehives in the town upon the attackers, who were soon routed.—Exchange.

Gems of Answers.

Among the gems of history answers on examination papers are the following:

"The courage of the Turks is explained by the fact that a man with more than one wife is more willing to face death than if he had only one."

"Julius Caesar was murdered at the moving picture house."

"When the last French attack at Waterloo proved a failure Napoleon turned very pale and rode at full gallop to St. Helena."

Among "howlers" on general subjects were the following:

"Ambiguity means telling the truth when you don't mean to."

"The flannellette perfumery means petticoat government."

"Much butter is imported from Denmark, because Danish cows have greater enterprise and superior technical education to ours."—London Globe.

Romance of a Shadow.

It is hard to believe that a shadow is probably the origin of all astronomical, geometrical and geographical science. The first man who fixed his staff perpendicularly in the ground and measured its shadow was the earliest computer of time, and the Arab of today who plants his spear in the sand and marks where the shadow falls is his direct descendant. It is from the shadow of a gnomon that the early Egyptians told the length of the year. It is from the shadow of a gnomon that the inhabitants of upper Egypt still measure the hours of work for a water wheel. In this case the gnomon is a hurra stalk supported on forked uprights and points north and south. East and west are pegs in the ground evenly marking the space of earth between sunrise and sunset. In a land of constant sunshine a shadow was the primitive chronometer. It was also the primitive footrule.—London Mail.

Crossing the Legs.

If we sit for some time with our legs crossed our foot "goes to sleep." We are really pressing on the sciatic nerve which supplies nearly all of the nerves of the leg and foot. The nerve is elastic and is flattened by pressure just like a rubber hose. The fibers which make up the nerve are sensory—that is to say, they carry sensations to the brain. Motor nerves carry sensations from the brain to the body. The only way to stop a nerve carrying sensations is by cutting it or by pressure, which pushes apart the soft nerve matter, which is covered with a sheath, just as the water is pushed apart if you press a hose. When the pressure is on the nerve messages cannot pass backward and forward. If the pressure is released the nerve matter returns to its place and does its work.

AMERICAN LINER
BRAVES WAR ZONE
HAS 385 PASSENGERS

New York, Dec. 15.—Braving the peril of "war zone" water 385 passengers sailed for England yesterday on the American liner St. Paul. It was the biggest passenger list carried on any liner since the Lusitania was sunk. There was a big cargo of mail, as the St. Paul is the last of the "Christmas ships" to leave port. She is due to arrive on Christmas eve. Precautions were taken to guard the liner against "U" boats. The American flag was painted on both sides and electric lights were arranged to illuminate it at night.

An Artist's Joke.

Holman Hunt, who began life as a clerk to an auctioneer and estate agent, was constantly drawing portraits when he should have been drawing up leases, and in his chosen profession he was never slow to seize the flying moment. The windows in his room were made of ground glass, and as he had little to do he spent much of his time in drawing flies upon its roughened surface. A blot of ink sufficed for the body and some delicate pencil strokes for the wings, and at a distance the deception was perfect. Day by day the number increased, and one morning his employer came in, stopped before the window and exclaimed: "I can't make out how it is. Every day that I come into this room there seem to be more and more flies." And, taking out his handkerchief, he attempted to brush them away.

Antiquity of the Dog.

It is impossible to say when dogs were first domesticated, but some of the earliest traces are found on Egyptian monuments, with figures of dogs, somewhat of the greyhound type, which date back to at least 3500 B. C. Even in those remote days the dog was highly esteemed. Coming down a little later, we read that Ulysses 3,000 years ago was recognized by his dog Argos after his swineherd had failed to do so. Plutarch speaks of Alcibiades, who cut off the tail of his dog, and Myron, the sculptor, immortalized the animal by chiseling his image in marble. The Romans valued their dogs and kept them for the chase and also as pets. Alexander the Great owned a veteran dog to tackle a lion.

CHRISTMAS TREE IN NEW YORK IS
75 FEET HIGH

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 15.—New York's municipal Christmas tree which will stand illuminated in Madison Square Christmas eve and around which on the night of December 26 the official city yuletide celebration will be held, is 75 feet high, the largest tree the city has had since the custom of municipal Christmas trees was inaugurated several years ago. At the celebration a chorus of 1000 voices will sing Christmas songs, and later in the evening the chorus and the throngs of listeners will hear "The Messiah" at Madison Square Garden. The "tree of light committee" which has the annual celebration in charge says that there will be more "trees of light" throughout the country than ever before. The custom has also spread to Japan.

Hotel Keeper is Dead of Apoplexy
at Frazey's

Frazeyburg, O., December 15.—While replenishing the fire in the furnace at 8 o'clock Saturday night, I. W. Ewan, 30, dropped dead from apoplexy at the Park hotel here. He had been a store and hotel keeper here for years and was one of the best known residents of northern Muskingum county. Mr. Ewan had been in his usual health throughout the day and his death came as a severe shock to his friends. He was a former postmaster of this village, was a member of the Masonic lodge and of the Presbyterian church. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Louise of the home, and by one brother, Joseph Ewan.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous In Newark.

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger.

In time of kidney danger, Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of Newark evidence of their worth.

J. R. Kellenberger, carpenter, 15 Western Ave., Newark says: "Kidney trouble and inflammation of the bladder caused me a lot of misery for several years. In the winter the kidney action was too frequent and I had to arise often at night, to pass the kidney secretions. While at work I was annoyed by the secretions and made miserable by pains across my loins, especially if I lifted. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Collins' Drug Store, regulated the passages of the kidney secretions and strengthened my back."

Hard on the Lions.

The Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon's keen wit was always based on sterling common sense. One day he remarked to one of his sons:

"Can you tell me the reason why the lions didn't eat Daniel?"

"No, sir. Why was it?"

"Because the most of him was backbone and the rest was grit."

Supremacy among "talking machines" is not claimed for THE NEW EDISON

The New Edison is not a "talking machine." It does what no talking machine can do; what no talking machine manufacturer would dare attempt to do.

The New Edison has been compared in public, before 300,000 music lovers, with such great artists as Marie Rappold, Anna Case, Julia Heinrich, Alice Verlet, Christine Miller, Arthur Middleton and Thomas Chalmers (as well as a dozen others). Thus it was proven, beyond all question, that the living voices of these great artists cannot be detected from the New Edison's Re-Creation of them. Remember that the artists stood beside the New Edison and sang in direct comparison with it, and that the audiences could not distinguish the artists' voices from the New Edison's Re-Creation of those same voices.

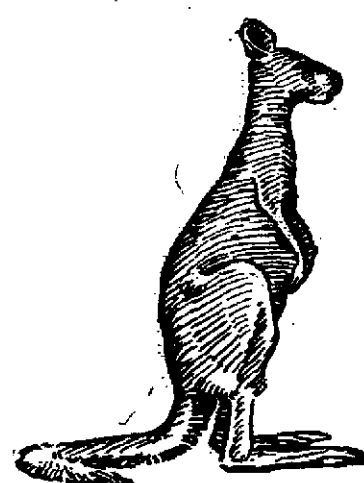

The NEW EDISON

accomplishes Mr. Edison's ambition to re-create all forms of music with such literal perfection that the original cannot be told from the Re-Creation.

COME TO OUR STORE THIS WEEK

We want you to hear the re-created voices of Zenatello and Rappold, and the masterly bowing of Spalding and Flesch.

W. E. BAILEY WAS WEAK IN FAITH

BUT NERV-WORTH'S POWER TO ESTABLISH CONFIDENCE SOON MANIFESTED ITSELF.

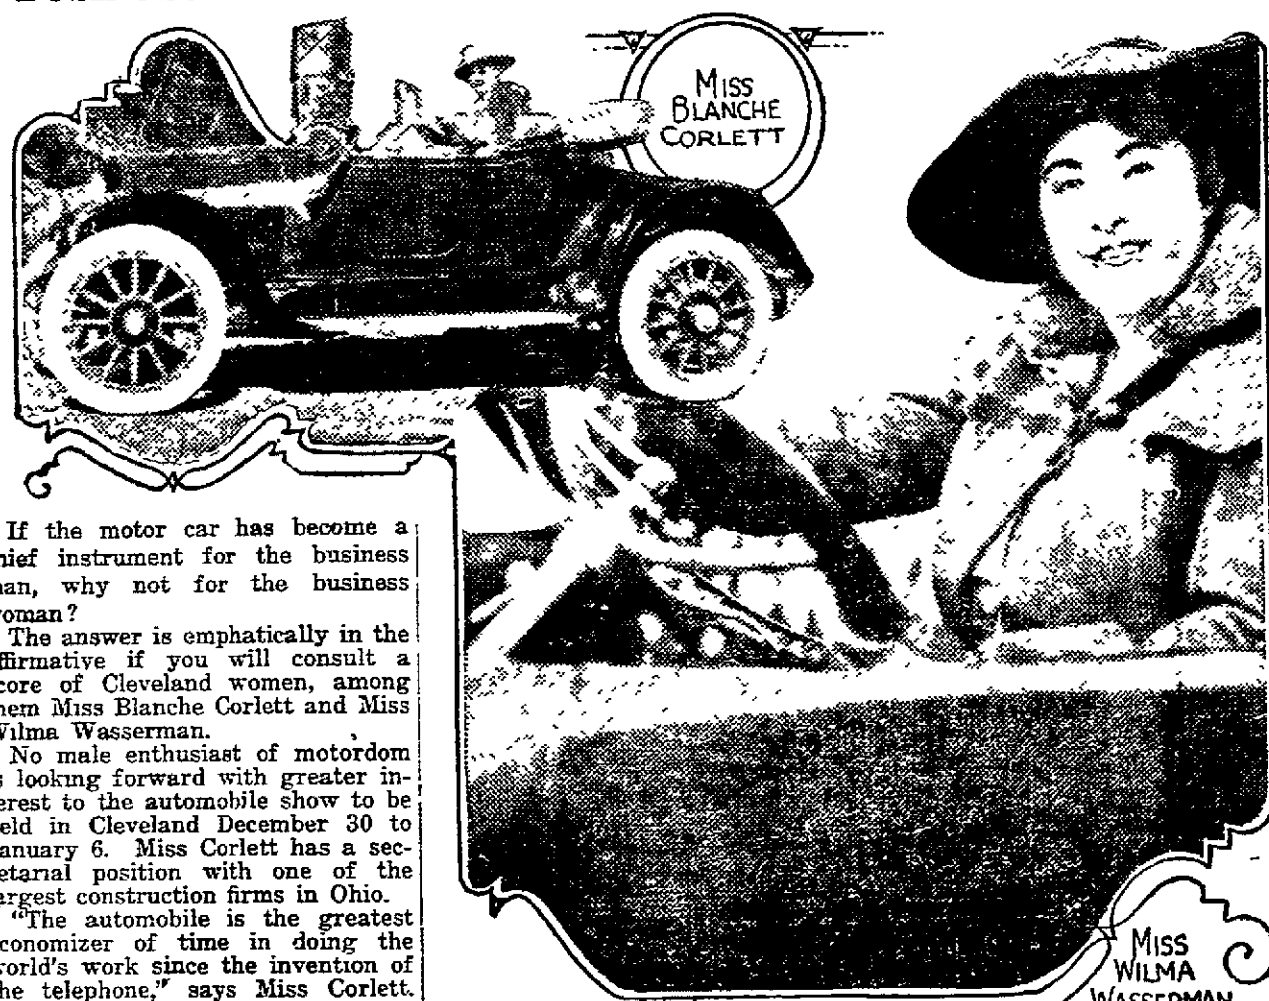

"I must say, at first hearing of Nerv-Worth, I did not have any faith in it, as other things had failed, so I felt the same way about Nerv-Worth, but was finally persuaded to try a bottle. I tried it and am thankful to say have received most wonderful results.

"My trouble was extreme nervousness and sleeplessness. Before this trouble came on I had severe attacks of sick headache. At night I could not sleep and would have to get up and walk around to obtain relief. Also troubled with a quivering sensation in the legs and it often got so bad that I would have to keep moving around and I could not sit down with any ease whatever.

"The second bottle of Nerv-Worth did certainly convince me that Nerv-Worth was the medicine for my trouble, as the results have been most wonderful. I sleep good, my stomach is much better condition, my nervousness is entirely gone and I feel as good as new once more. I cheerfully recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone troubled with nervous disorders.

BUSINESS WOMAN ADOPTS MOTOR FOR WORK AND RECREATION

If the motor car has become a chief instrument for the business man, why not for the business woman?

The answer is emphatically in the affirmative if you will consult a score of Cleveland women, among them Miss Blanche Corlett and Miss Wilma Wasserman.

No male enthusiast of motordom is looking forward with greater interest to the automobile show to be held in Cleveland December 30 to January 6. Miss Corlett has a secretarial position with one of the largest construction firms in Ohio.

"The automobile is the greatest economizer of time in doing the world's work since the invention of the telephone," says Miss Corlett. "Why shouldn't we as well as the business man share in the benefits?"

Miss Wasserman is a teacher and declares the automobile is more than a splendid means of getting to and from a place of employment; it is the best of recreation after a trying ration for the morrow nothing is better than being at the wheel during a spin through the open country that infest the day and for recreation.

The best foundation for a delicate gown whether the skin is too red, too white, rough or otherwise, is a warm bath, followed by a cold dash. Then the complexion and exposed flesh is thoroughly massaged with a cleaning cream. The fingers should be warmed so that the flesh will absorb it more rapidly.

Our Boys and Girls

School children rarely have time to reach home for the noonday meal, and in consequence eat a picked up lunch that is in no way calculated to give nourishment required at the time. On their return home, half famished, they immediately rush to the other extreme and eat much more than they require or than is good for them, and probably in a few hours consume a hearty dinner. The health of a child should come first in the care of the parent, even above the necessity of going to school. School methods, should, in some way, be made to fit the needs of children in this important particular, not only to prevent contracting the habit of over-eating later in the day, but to allow for the provision of proper nourishment at the proper time.

Everyday Etiquette

"A girl friend with a man escort came into the car where I sat and, after introductions, he tried to pay my fare. 'Is that proper?' asked Gladys. 'A man in the position could hardly avoid paying all the fares and it was probably his pleasure to do so,' answered her sister. Opposition to the eight-hour law is now apparently limited to the railroads and Tom Edison—Washington Post.

Open This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain. He says freezezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Tonight and Tomorrow.
It was not so long ago that William Wadsworth was known to photo-play patrons simply as a clever comedian. But that Mr. Wadsworth is equally capable of playing very different types from those with which he has usually been associated is clearly demonstrated by his excellent performance in "The Martyrdom of Philip Strong," a Paramount Picture in which he appears in support of Robert Connors and Madel Trunnelle, at the Alhambra theatre tonight and tomorrow.

Wednesday and Thursday.
Nellie Anderson, Vitagraph's popular character actress, is seen in the role of the landlady in "The Mysterious Motor Car," the sixth episode of "The Scarlet Runner" from the novel of the same by C. N. & A. M. Williamson. This mile-a-minute motor series featuring Earle Williams is shown at the Alhambra theatre every Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Anderson will be remembered for her characterization of the gypsy woman in "Anselmo Lee," and other strong portrayals under the Vitagraph eagle.

"Bought and Paid For." "Bought and Paid For" will make the Alhambra theatre the most popular place of amusement in town after the showing on Wednesday and Thursday. This piece, featuring Alice Brady, scores wherever shown. The entire cast has been carefully selected and the whole production has been masterfully handled under William A. Brady's personal supervision.

GRAND.
Heralded as a sensational innovation in the photoplay world, the first of Essanay's great dramatic series, "Is Marriage Sacred?" will be shown at the Grand tonight. "The Burning Band" is the title of this production. It will grapple with one of the ever-present, home-destroying problems of matrimony. It will reveal a knot in the relationship between a man and his wife, and proceed to unite it. The wedding ring is the burning band of life today. Other similar problems will be presented in following units of this powerful series. However, each production will tell a story complete in itself. For the production of "Is Marriage Sacred?" cycle, Essanay has gathered together one of the most competent and pleasing stock companies in the motion picture industry. The cast includes such notables as Marguerite Clayton, Lillian Drew, Sydney Amesworth, Edward Arnold and Thomas Commerford. Elaborate scenic effects and costumes will predominate. Don't miss it.

AUDITORIUM.
— Saturday Night's Show.
May Robson and her clever company was seen at the Auditorium Saturday matinee and night by two pitifully small audiences in "The Making Over of Mrs. Matt," a comedy by James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady," and other plays. The play is a delightful comedy with a plot and Miss Robson as Mrs. Emily Lamson, wife of the wealthy Mathew Lamson, who had come from Omaha, Neb., to enter business in the metropolis and who had social ambitions for his wife and son. Miss Robson kept the audience in excellent humor throughout the play and received a number of curtain calls.

Miss Marie Pavey, a waitress at an inn, proved that her conception of the character met with the approval of the audience, for she was what might be designated as actually funny. James J. Mitchell as Junior Lamson, excellently portrayed the rich man's son. The company was one of the best seen here this season and the small audiences were due to the fact that the production was given on Saturday during the holiday rush, for Miss Robson has a reputation as one of the best comedienne on the stage.

Tonight.
Lovers of real musical shows will have their tastes fully satisfied today at the Auditorium, for Charles Robinson's big girly whirly show is the attraction. Last week at Columbus this show made one of the biggest hits of the season and was voted the best Wheel show that had visited the state capital this year. The company numbers thirty-five people, mostly girls, who are picked from the best talent in the show business. Heading the company is May Bernhardt, Gertrude Sommers, Mabel Lee, Freda Lohr, Harry S. Le Van, Willie Mack, Charles Edwards. At Tarpece the Poney Ballet of 20, and the Four Harmonists, said to be one of the best quartettes on the American stage today. The seat sale for this evening is large and there should be a sell out as the show has been heralded from city to city as being one of the best attractions touring the country. The electrical effects are startling, and the musical numbers include some of the latest of whistling songs. Follow the crowds as all roads lead to the Auditorium today.

"Life's Shadows."

here at the Auditorium theatre on Tuesday Nigh, who wrote "Life's Shadows" and directed its production, in addition to playing one of the stellar characters, has surrounded himself with a notable cast.

This feature, also the eighth episode of "The Crimson Stain Mystery," will be seen at the Auditorium tomorrow Tuesday.

"The Unborn."
The Auditorium will have on display Wednesday beginning at 1 p. m., a picture that has turned thousands away at almost every theatre it has been shown. The picture with Gertrude Blondhill as the star is "The Unborn" in five sensational birth-control photoplays, "Where Are My Children." It presents parallel stories, showing the tragic fate of the girl who patronized a mal-practitioner and the equally tragic fate thing new and refreshing in musical comedy and in an eloquent testimony of what the expenditure of money and brains can do for this mode of entertainment. In color schemes and costume harmonies it concentrates all the scenic and sartorial beauties of the season on one stage, and casts them at you with such good taste that their original artistic form is retained. In a tour of the principal cities last season, "My Home Town Girl" met with an enthusiastic reception everywhere. The engagement is for December 25, 26 and 27.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast
Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS
Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clear and active.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA
Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandma's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Just Think this over, Mr. Drinking Man

The Christmas Gift She'd Most Appreciate is You.

Not some trifling bauble nor costly gems, but a gift that will bespeak the same devotion to her who shares with you the bitter and sweet of life that was present in days that now are gone; that will assure her that you have not forgotten her; that you appreciate more truly than ever the golden wealth of her nature undimmed by the trials that she has borne.

Not as you are today. Not the man who staggers home, an object of derision and disgust to all who see him, who opens as with a knife, every aching wound in the heart of the woman who waits your coming, dry-eyed but racked by a thousand burning regrets.

Is this the Christmas gift you expect to bring to her, the woman who stood so radiant at your side that happy day, who looked up to you so confidently and swore to honor you for all time? Are you going to further sear her soul or are you going to make this Christmas different?

There's a gift you can give her that will make her the happiest woman in the world. It will smoothen her face the lines and furrows of misery and shame, it will bring back to her cheeks the bloom and freshness of youth, it will rekindle in her eyes the old light of faith and trust and in her heart it will sing a new song of love.

Mr. Drinking Man, your image still holds the highest place in her heart of hearts. She still believes in you. She still hopes for you. What a surprise to go back to her arms on Christmas morning your old-time self — physically clean, mentally alert and morally strong — freed from the lustful, debasing appetite for drink.

Three short days—a mere week end—will do it. Thousands have tried the Neal Way, and this Christmas thousands of wives bustle in their preparations for Christmas festivities with a song on their lips and happiness in their hearts.

We want to tell you all about the treatment—to help you make this the happiest Christmas ever for her and for you. Come in, talk it over and you can make arrangements for treatment to be taken whenever you are ready. Open day and night.

Call, write or 'phone the Neal Institute, 1320 Main St., Columbus, O. Phone East 860.

YOUNG GOTCH ANXIOUS FOR VICTORY OVER NEWARK'S WRESTLING CHAMP

YOUNG GOTCH (AL HAFT)

Columbus Wrestler Who Appears in Newark Thursday Night For Match With Paul Bowser.

COLUMBUS FANS ARE INTERESTED IN COMING MEET

Believe Young Gotch and His Y. M. C. A. Team Will Defeat Paul Bowser and his team at the Auditorium Thursday.

Columbus wrestling fans are busy these days discussing the coming inter-city championship meet, to be held Thursday at the Auditorium between Newark amateurs and the Columbus Y. M. C. A. team, also the Paul Bowser-Young Gotch match bout.

They believe that Gotch will defeat the champion while his six men team will win in a walk from the local grapplers.

Gotch has been endeavoring for the past two years to get a match with the middleweight king, but weight conditions prevented the go. The Columbus man insisted Bowser make 155 pounds rugged and this Newark man refused to do so. Finally after hurling more than a dozen challenges at the champion, Gotch decided to take the bout by the horns and force Bowser into a finish bout at catch weights.

The match was arranged several weeks ago and also an inter-city meet between Columbus and Newark amateur teams. Last year's meet between the two cities resulted in a victory for Newark in five out of six bouts. This year, however, the Columbus boys are determined to even up for their loss, by winning every start.

The Newark boys are working hard for the meet and predict that his team should cop the majority of medals to be awarded.

Earl Howard, of this city, will face Harry Tanneberg, National A. A. U. champion in the 135 pound class. This will be a bout worth going dimes to see. At least the Columbus fans believe that way and are coming to Newark several hundred strong, in special cars.

Ticket sale on sale now and the fans wishing to attend the event would profit by securing their seats early as the Columbus contingent has pulled a block of 500 paste boards to date and many more are expected to be taken before Thursday night.

A Bumper.

When a glass is as full as it possibly can be of liquor the surface of the liquor is slightly convex and the center lies higher than the brim. In view of this fact such a glassful is called a bumper, because the liquor bumps up or protrudes in the middle.

Hot Dishes.

To make dinner plates and dishes hot before sending to the table dip them in very hot water instead of putting them in the oven. This takes only a little more time than putting them in the oven and is less liable to crack the china.

Light Breakfast.

"I was awfully hungry when I woke up this morning."

"Did you do anything for it?"

"Oh, yes: I took a roll off the bed."

A Christmas Remembrance That Yields Lasting Pleasure and Satisfaction

Too often Christmas gifts are selected without regard to the permanence of pleasure that they may bring.

A Municipal Bond makes a present that not only brings a feeling of pleasure but at the same time it creates a sense of permanent and enduring satisfaction.

Municipal Bonds are backed by the public faith and credit and the power of public taxation to provide the money for their payment and are therefore regarded by bankers and financiers generally as among the safest of all known investments.

The most convincing proof of the safety and the substantial character of Municipal Bonds is the fact that with the exception of government bonds they are the only securities accepted by the United States Government to secure postal savings deposits.

Not only are Municipal Bonds safe but they are at the same time among the most readily convertible into cash of all known investments.

The Security Municipal Bond Company at all times carries a large stock of carefully selected Municipal Bonds yielding from five to six per cent and in amounts of $100, $200, $500 and $1,000.

Christmas givers in selecting their presents would make no mistake in considering one of our Municipal Bonds. Nothing could be selected that would be prized more highly or bring to the one receiving it more real and substantial pleasure.

Bonds will be reserved and held for Christmas Day delivery or within twenty days thereafter.

CONGRESSMEN FROM SOUTH ASK ASHBROOK'S HELP FOR PORK BILL

Washington, Dec. 18.—Representative William A. Ashbrook of Johnston is finding out what it is to be put in a tight place.

Ashbrook is the author of the widows' pension law, the most liberal legislation for soldiers' widows ever placed on the statute books. Likewise he is one of the most vigorous opponents of "pork barrel" legislation in Congress. He is a member of the house committee on public buildings and grounds, and has made it his business to oppose the movement to make a haul on the federal treasury to provide for the construction of a lot of public buildings where they are not needed.

Just now the "pork barrelers" are engaged in paving the way for the passage of an old-fashioned "tickle me and I'll tickle you" pork barrel public building bill, carrying a total of $30,000,000. When it became known about that Ashbrook has secured half an hour's time to make a speech against the bill, members from Southern states began to make life burdensome for him. For several days they have been going to him with stories like this:

"We helped you to pass your widows' pension bill, not withstanding the South, as you can imagine is not enthusiastic on the subject of pensions for federal soldiers and their widows. Now you have an opportunity to repay us for that favor by helping us to get some public buildings for our section, where we receive no benefit from pension legislation. Aren't you going to do it?"

Of course this sort of an appeal would get under almost anybody's hide and Ashbrook does not claim to be anything more than human. To avoid unnecessary offense to his touchy colleagues he may decide not to make a speech against the omnibus building bill and merely content himself with voting against it. He has a strong impression, however, that he would be performing a real public service if he tore the mask off of the bill.

The public building committee adopted a ruse to get Ashbrook's vote by including in the omnibus bill an appropriation of $100,000 for Mt. Vernon, in Ashbrook's district. It was thought he would not dare to vote against the bill with that item in it. But the "pork barrelers" misjudged Ashbrook. He is against the bill and will vote against it at the risk of making himself unpopular at Mt. Vernon and he may yet decide to make a speech in which he will analyze and dissect it for the information of that portion of the public that is not familiar with pork-barrel legislation.

A WELL KNOWN WOMAN SPEAKS

In Every Town in Ohio Neighbors Say the Same.

Zanesville, Ohio.—"I used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had the trouble peculiar to women of forty-five. The 'Favorite Prescription' used as directed proved just the right medicine. I took about four bottles and each bottle seemed to do more good than the last. It helped me so much that I have never ceased to speak highly of it. I also used 'Golden Medical Discovery' at the same time and found it equally good."—Mrs. MARY GREGG, 330 Columbus St., Zanesville, Ohio.

The mighty restorative power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription speedily causes all womanly troubles to disappear—compels the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

It is a wonderful prescription, prepared only from nature's roots and herbs, with no alcohol to falsely stimulate and no narcotics to wreck the nerves. It banishes pain, headache, backache, low spirits, hot flashes, dragging-down sensation, worry and sleeplessness surely and without loss of time.

Why should any woman continue to worry, to lead a miserable existence, when certain help is at hand?

What Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for thousands it will do for you. It's not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Get it this very day at any medicine dealers in either liquid or tablet form.

Safeguards in Buildings.

The man who intends to build will not take heed of the man who has had an unfortunate experience in building, because he feels that he is shrewd enough to look after his own interests and safeguard his own rights, notwithstanding the fact that he is engaging for the time being in a business enterprise that is totally foreign to him. If he sets out to buy a five cent loaf of bread he gets a loaf of bread for 5 cents. If he sets out to build a residence for $25,000 there are no good reasons why he should not be able to do it for that amount. He should definitely know two things—first, exactly what he is going to get for the price he expects to pay and, second, the outside limit of cost for the completed structure. To demand these safeguards is perfectly fair and natural, for in every phase of business today, except building, one knows just what the cost of any specified piece of work will be.—Noble Foster Hoggson in Countryside Magazine.

Our Two Brains.

Nature, according to a new theory, has given us two brains, just as she has given us a pair of eyes, hands and ears, which help each other to do the work of the body.

Every one has two brains, but he uses only one for intellectual purposes. If a man is right handed he uses the left brain. The left handed one uses the right brain. Which brain we are going to use is therefore decided by which hand we make use of first when we are babies.

The brain which is not being used for the intellect helps the other to minister to the body. It also serves as an emergency brain in case of disease or accident. Sometimes memory or speech is destroyed by accident, and if the second brain is trained it may do the work of the other which has been destroyed. It is easier to train the brain in this way if the patient is under thirty years of age.

Charity's Reward.

There is going the rounds of the clubs where certain of the town's physicians and surgeons meet a story of a young doctor who had a number of charity cases. This young doctor, as runs the narrative, had occasion to visit a woman who was very poor, with several children. He prescribed for her cases and, touched by the evident poverty of the family, gave the woman $5. "Buy the medicine and use what is left for food," he said kindly, going his way. The next day he returned to see how his patient was getting along.

"Mother's don't fine," said one of the children, who met the young doctor at the door. "She took that $5 and got a real doctor."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Incompatibility.

A young man named Older knew an old man named Younger.

Older Younger had a son younger than Older and another Younger older. The older Younger liked the younger Older, and the older Younger's elder was pleased.

But the younger Younger disliked the older Older simply because he was younger and the other was older.

Friction grew between the older Younger, the elder Younger and the younger Older through his dislike of the younger Younger, and to this day the Older and Youngers do not mingle.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Battle Elephants.

One of the most terrifying "engines of war" of ancient times was the battle elephant employed by Pyrrhus, Alexander's cousin, in the first of the famous "Pyrrhic victories" over the Romans. Twenty of these huge beasts were used against the enemies of the Tarentines at the battle of Heraclea in 280 B. C. The strange moving mountains of flesh caused a wave of fear to sweep over the Romans, and they fled from the field of carnage, but after one experience with the animals their courage returned, and henceforth the war elephant was more of a curiosity than an effective engine.

A Self Made Road.

In Utah, states the Engineering Record, is a fifty mile road across the Great Salt lake desert on ground so level that a spirit level cannot detect any grade, and the road is built on a straight line. The road was built at the rate of a mile a day, and the whole cost of the road was only $26,000.

Something Was.

Rivers was smoking a cheap cigar. "Seems to me," said Brooks, "I smell something like cloth burning." But Rivers was game. He touched the lighted end of his cigar to his shirt sleeve. "No wonder," he said, exhibiting the burned spot.—Chicago Tribune.

Villa Disavows Attack on Border Asks Peace Conference

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 18.—Villa has asked for a conference with General Hugh Scott, relative to policing the border and the protection of the lives and property of Americans and other foreigners, according to the message of a second envoy of the bandit, who, concealing his identity, arrived here late Saturday. The second mysterious envoy from the bandit conferred with General Bell and state department special agents. The courier quoted Villa as saying that General Scott, unhindered, could have settled the Mexican situation long since and could have prevented bloodshed. Villa and General Scott long have been friends. They had several conferences in El Paso and elsewhere before Villa lost the friendship of the United States through his raids on Columbus and elsewhere.

Villa sent word that he had no animosity towards any Americans except "dollar diplomats," who are trucking and hoarding to Carranza. According to the envoy, Villa is supreme in the states of Chihuahua, Coahuila, and Durango and is approaching supremacy in Sonora with the complete overthrow of Carranza at hand.

Villa's latest alleged proposals through the two envoys who have appeared here with olive branches in their hands, is considered a complete change of heart from the lurid manifesto which was ostensibly issued by the bandit chieftain while he occupied Chihuahua City and which reached El Paso a week ago. The messengers borne by the envoys are taken to mean that Villa has no intention of attacking Pershing and also seeks to disavow any complicity in the raids upon Columbus and Santa Ysabel.

Granville

(Special to Advocate.)

Granville, O., Dec. 18. — The eighth annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah" given by the Engwerson chorus assisted by the Denison orchestra and directed by Karl H. Eschmann, on Sunday afternoon, December 17, was a magnificent performance and viewed as a whole, it merits the distinction claimed for it of being the best yet given. The Baptist church was packed with an appreciative audience among which were noted scores of out-of-town people, and it seems that this immortal work has become an integral part of the Christmas celebration in the community. Your correspondent has enjoyed the privilege of having taken notes on every performance of this oratorio given in Granville since 1904 and has observed the gradual growth of interest as each year has brought the message home in some new way. On yesterday afternoon, Prof. Eschmann demonstrated anew his power of overcoming obstacles, as the chorus work under existing conditions of seating could not have been improved upon. There was splendid volume, excellent attack, and more ready response to the baton than ever before, while the orchestra was the help and inspiration of the singers it was designed by the composer to be. The organ, under Miss Leila Brown's magic touch, fairly breathed the breath of life into the accompaniments, and one gained fresh insight into the real meaning of this old-time production with its repetitions, and its phrasing; its somberness of tone and its brightness of hope as viewed in the grand "I know that My Redeemer Liveth" and in the "Hallelujah Chorus."

Three of the soloists made their first appearance in this oratorio before a local audience. Mrs. Corinne Lockman assistant in voice in Denison conservatory, who possesses a mezzo voice of good range and great purity, sang the contralto and soprano aria "He Shall Feed His Flock" and the soprano aria "How Beautiful are the Feet of Him" in a way to bring out the velvet smoothness of her tones and the sympathetic quality of her voice. Miss Corinne Borschors of Columbus, delighted the audience with the contralto arias "Oh Thou that Teldest Good Tidings" and "He was Despised." She sang without rehearsal but was equal to the exacting demands of the roles. Her voice and presence reveal the authority of the trained singer, and her diction was a great satisfaction to those who regard "The Messiah" in the light of a religious service. Mr. R. W. Soule, the new head of the voice department in the conservatory, whose voice has a wonderful range, sang the tenor arias with consummate art and with a musical insight that gave to his interpretations a meaning never before brought home so poignantly to the hearts of this audience. "Thy Rebuke Hath Broken His Heart," as interpreted by Mr. Soule, brought vividly the image of The Man of Sorrows, and in virile contrast was the "Thou Shalt Break Them" in which the singer's marvellous breath control met every test.

Mrs. Marion Rose Johnson sang the soprano arias, "Rejoice Greatly" and "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," with the perfect technique, the splendid tone, and deep feeling that always characterize her oratorio work. No more exquisite diction of the former has been heard in Granville. Mr. Paul Curtis in the bass arias had gained greatly in breath of conception and facility of expression since last heard, and his voice was heard to fine advantage.

Too much can hardly be said in praise of the orchestra, as a home talent organization is apt to be the rock on which ambitious directors may go to pieces. The presence of Miss Mabel Martin, cellist, of Columbus, was a distinct asset. In the choruses, the men's section was splendidly balanced, and in "Behold the Lamb of God," the bass was particularly well sustained. The soprano and alto were always equal to the demands. Announcement is made by Director Eschmann that for the first time the silver offering will just about meet the necessary expense of the production.

Another year this performance should be in the nature of a vespers service taking the place of the evening worship in all the churches.

Miss Eva Robinson in the audience yesterday, said that for the first time it had occurred to her that the sculptor on Handel's tomb in Westminster Abbey must be the Heavenly host singing the "Hallelujah Chorus."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell who have returned to their home in Columbus and were unable to attend the presentation of "The Messiah" yesterday, attested their interest as trustees of the Festival Association by sending a generous check.

Prof. Everett Johnston filled the Baptist auditorium Sunday evening with an audience appreciative of his impressive reading of "The Other Wise Man," presented under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

Sigma Chi entertained the following guests at a dinner party Wednesday evening, December 13th: Misses Sefton, Garnet Schmidt, Pauline Ireland, Mary McDonald, Marie Hamilton, Louise Cobb, Blanche Putnam, Helen Longworth, Olga Rummel, Helen Hudson, Florence Street of Chicago and Miss Sefton were Sunday dinner guests of Sigma Chi.

Remember the address by the Hon. John G. Woolley in the Granville Opera House tonight at 7:30. You can't afford to miss it.

FLASHLIGHTS SAVE CREW OF SINKING SHIPS

New York, Dec. 18.—Eleven survivors of the Spanish steamship Pío IX, wrecked in a storm and sunk several hundred miles off the Canary Islands on Dec. 8, arrived here yesterday on the steamship Buenos Aires. Eleven others were reported to have been saved by a French transport. Forty of the crew, including the captain, were drowned. Nine of the men on the Buenos Aires were picked up from an improvised raft and two of them from a ladder.

Had it not been for two small electric flashlights, it was said, the men brought here also probably would have been drowned. The Buenos Aires, which had responded to an "S. O. S." call from the Pío IX, failed in an effort to attach a line to the sinking ship, owing to the heavy sea. She was compelled to draw away for her own safety. All the lifeboats on the Pío IX, it was said, had been smashed in attempts to launch them. Night overtook them, the survivors said, as they were battling hopelessly in the raging sea.

A light flashing from the surface of the sea attracted attention on board the Buenos Aires. A boat was lowered and two of the survivors were picked up from a ship's ladder, with which they had leaped into the water. Soon afterward a similar light was observed and nine others were picked up from an improvised life craft.

"I NEVER KNEW" A PRETTY DUET

No one ever knows how clever the infantile-looking Cupid is until he holds two human hearts in his chubby hands.

"I Never Knew," one of the prettiest duets of the season, from the successful musical comedy, "Canary Cottage," just recorded by Columbia, reveals a few of the little god's tactics for those who don't know.

Ernest Aldwell and Nanette Flack, a most romantic combination of voices—tenor and soprano—sing the song in a manner that makes the contemplation of a "canary cottage" quite irresistible.

PRESIDENT SENDS CHECK FOR $2,500.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Dec. 18.—President Wilson is the latest notable contributor to the fund being raised by popular subscription to pay off the deficit incurred by the Democratic National Committee in the recent campaign. Treasurer Wilbur W. Marsh has just received from him the following letter:

"I do not want to be left out in the work of paying the deficit in the campaign funds which you and your associates are working so unselfishly to make good. I therefore beg that you will let me contribute and take pleasure in enclosing my cheque for two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500)."

"Cordially and sincerely,"
"WOODROW WILSON."

This is the President's second contribution to the fund, he having sent a cheque for a like amount six weeks before the election.

Treasurer Marsh and Chairman Morgenthau of the Finance Committee of the Democratic National Committee are greatly pleased by the number of donations received, though most of these are so small that they constitute a sum far short of the total amount still required.

Wife of Witness Will Corroborate Tale Against Teuton

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
San Francisco, Dec. 18.—The third week of the trial of Franz Bopp, German consul-general, and six co-defendants on charges of conspiring to violate the neutrality of the United States by interfering with the shipment of munitions to the entente allies was resumed in the United States district court today. Mrs. Mary Smith, wife of Louis J. Smith, the government's chief witness, is to be the first witness. The prosecution expects her to corroborate her husband's testimony concerning the dealings he is alleged to have had last year with the German consul-general and his associates. Smith, who is one of the defendants in the case, was formerly an employee of the consulate, and with C. C. Crowley, a detective, is alleged to have been an active agent in the various dynamite plots. Although Vice Consul E. H. von Shack, Liet. George W. von Bricker Crowley and Mrs. Margaret Corneil have been implicated by Smith's testimony, Bopp's connection with the case has not been brought out.

United States District Attorney John W. Preston said he expected to show that Bopp was the only member of the consulate who could sign checks; that he signed checks at the tie of an alleged payment of $1,200 to Smith, and $800 to Crowley, which Smith claims was made by von Bricken for the consulate and that the checks will prove Bopp knew what was to be done with the money.

It has been alleged by the prosecution that a $100,000 fund was placed at the disposal of the consulate for the purpose of impeding munition shipments to the allies.

SEC. BAKER SAYS LEWIS GUN WAS GIVEN GOOD TEST

Washington, Dec. 18.—Official condemnation of the Lewis machine gun, extensively purchased for the British and Canadian armies, is expressed in a formal statement issued last night by Secretary Baker, assuming full responsibility for the action of the war department with respect to the much-discussed weapon and directing the controversy among army officers over it cease.

"Whatever responsibility attaches to the condemnation of this gun as a service gun belongs to the war department, the statement asserts, "and not to the chief of ordnance or the ordnance department. The proceedings of the boards which tested the rifle have been in each case duly approved by the secretary of war."

The statement shows that the inspector general was directed to investigate the whole matter of the treatment of the Lewis gun, named after its inventor, a former army officer when "the controversy reached the stage where open letters from high ranking army officers were published." A board of officers already had agreed with previous boards that the gun was not suitable for extensive purchase for the army.

The inspector general's conclusions are reported in this statement. In addition to the two paragraphs already quoted, he finds no official record that Colonel Lewis ever offered his gun in any way to the United States government; that the American Arms Company, in 1913, made the only offer of 100 guns at $1000 each, with license for government manufacture on a royalty basis; that tests of the gun were conducted by regularly constituted boards; that the Savage Arms Company, in April of this year, wrote General Crozier, chief of ordnance, expressing entire satisfaction with the work of the last board; that the gun's failure to pass its endurance test caused its exclusion from field tests, and, finally that:

"The records do not show any hostility on the part of General Crozier or the ordnance department to the Lewis gun, but do show that the department, by direction of its chief, afforded the owners of the gun every possible facility in placing it before the testing board."

FOG MAKES STREETS OF PITTSBURGH AS DARK AS MIDNIGHT

Pittsburgh, Dec. 18.—Pittsburgh today experienced what weather observers declared was the darkest day in its history. At nine o'clock the streets, even in suburbs, were black as the ordinary midnight, with electric lamps on in full force and automobiles and street cars lighted to the full extent of their power. All traffic was seriously impeded particularly on railroads where trains were being operated as though during the hours of night. Thousands of persons were late in reaching their places of employment, and freight traffic was seriously impeded.

The local office of the weather bureau said the darkness was caused by a falling temperature which permitted the formation of fog. The fog mingling with smoke from mills and factories absolutely no wind in the streets and only a gentle breeze at the top of the highest buildings and out on the hills.
